

Conceptual Framework

The content of the TERRITORIUM is structured as follows:

- Articles Section with approx. 4 main articles
- Article/review Section with approx. 1-2 articles
- Spatial plan review Section with approx. 1-2 articles
- History Section with approx. 1-2 articles
- Project review with approx. 1-2 articles
- Book review with approx. 1-2 articles

Form of articles*Preliminary Remark:

Please indicate clearly the Section

First Page:

Name of author(s) and title, present position, complete address, telephone/fax numbers, e-mail address of the authors.

Second Page:

Title of the article (without author's name), designation of article (section) .

Use only the most important formation modes with max 2 deeper categories of titles (e.g. 2.2.1. ....). Integrate illustrations, figures and tables in the text. Lettering should be large enough to be legible after reducing to printing size. Avoid very wide or very long tables that would not fit printed page size. Also avoid very large illustration hat would not fit printed page size. Use only illustrations with minimum resolution of 300dpi in TIFF format. The same information should not be duplicated in tables and illustrations.

List references in alphabetic manner at the end of the manuscript on a separate page.

Please use endnotes grouped on a separate page instead of footnotes. Article should consist of 5-10 pages.

Authors are requested to submit their articles by e-mail to speed the reviewing process and publication. All texts should be in one file (no separate files for biographical paragraphs, references, etc.), but please note, that a separate file is required for tables and illustrations.

Submission of articles

If you are interested in contributing to our international spatial planning journal, you are kindly invited to send articles or to contact us for more detailed information.
